

Water moves from place to place through pipes under the ground. Find the right pipes to take the water from the tower to the fountain.

